

A Plan loan allows you to borrow against your retirement plan, at a rate determined by your investment provider, and pay yourself back over time. The IRS limits a 403(b) plan loan to $50,000 or one half of your account value including existing loans. If you are interested in taking a loan against a 403(b) account funded under your current or previous employer's 403(b) plan, submit this form along with your investment provider paperwork to SchoolsFirst Plan Administration for authorization. Please be aware that IRS taxes and penalties may apply if you default on a loan.

Note: Please allow 5-7 business days for review and authorization. Missing or incomplete documentation will result in a delay of your request.
